The Cooma VIEW Clubs are hosting the Combined Services Dinner on 6 November at the Ex-services Club, 6.30 for 7pm. Cost $30. Guest speaker is Geoff Stokes, head coach of the Australian Invictus Games team.

Jeannette

The stroke presentation was very successful, with over 40 attendees. The presentations by the guest speakers were well received and full of information.

Elaine S

Duck Race ticket books are available to take and sell. There is a need for volunteers to sell tickets at designated times at the supermarkets.

Claire N

Marnie on behalf of the Community Chest has extended an invitation for people to attend a Mental Health Wellbeing Forum at the Alpine Hotel on 26th September, 6.30 for a 7pm start. RSVP to the Fabric Salon.

Margaret H

As she will be away for the next couple of weeks, any bottle tops you have saved can be put in the collection container, which is in the kitchen at the Bowlo.

Wednesday 18th September will be the Annual Rotary Film Night. This year our pre-release movie is Ride Like a Girl, The Michelle Payne Story. Time 7pm for 7.30. Cost will be $20 including pre-movie drinks and nibbles.

Snowy Hydro is celebrating 70 years this year and they are planning on holding an event on 19th October at the Snowy Hydro Visitors Centre. We will be bringing the food van down to serve German food as part of the celebrations.

Thought of the Week – Darrell

Knowledge is knowing a tomato is a fruit, wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.

Guests – Mason, Gracie and Renee, Snowy Mountains Performing Arts Academy

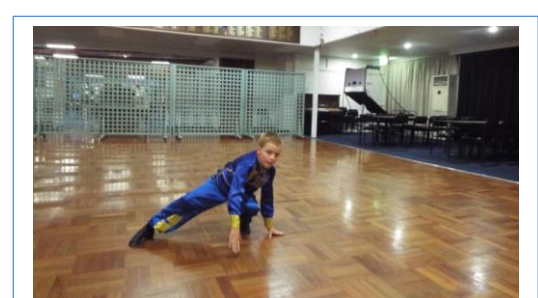

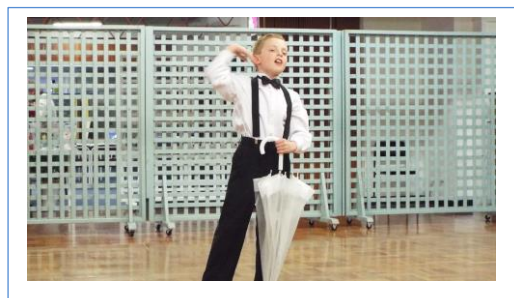

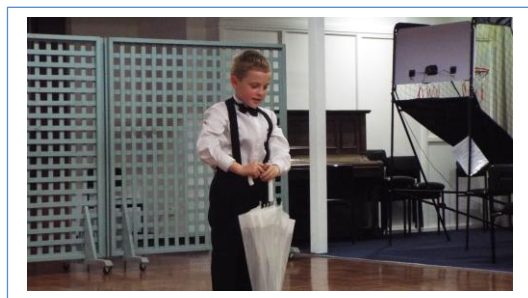

In July Mason, Gracie, Renee and their teacher Lisa travelled to Anaheim California to take part in the Kid's Artistic Review event. This is an invitation only competition, the organisers travelling the world to find the best of the best to take part.

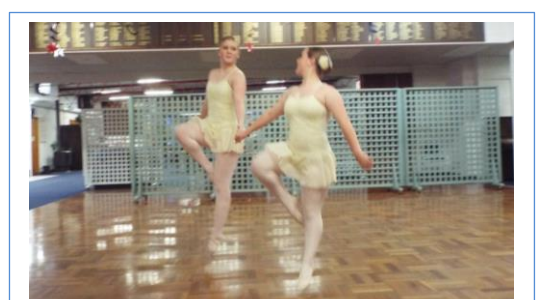

Mason came 1st for his presentation of Singing in the Rain and also won the Title Dance and Mr Petite, which made him the National Champion, the biggest award in the competition, with the biggest trophy to go with it.

Gracie received 1st for her two solos, 1st in musical theatre and 6th in lyrical and Renee came 1st in her solo. Gracie and Leah received an Elite top 1 in the student and teacher duo dance.

It was a very successful trip and we were able to showcase the different dance styles we do in Australia. We extend our thanks to the Cooma community, including Rotary, as without their support we would not have been able to undertake the trip.
